

SUPPORT & ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMME 2019-20 | CYPFEIF & ALEC FUND

During the time of the CYPFEIF & ALEC Fund, the Support and Engagement Programme will aim to:

1. Provide on-going and broad support to organisations receiving core funding to deliver their CYPFEIF & ALEC Fund work and to contribute to the overall aims of the Fund.
2. Develop the capabilities, skills and capacity of the individuals and organisations receiving core funding to support them deliver both the outcomes and indicators of their work and wider outcomes for children, young people, families and adult and community learners.
3. Encourage greater partnership working across the funded organisations, providing an opportunity to link in to and influence national policy development.

Programme Overview 2019-20

The Support & Engagement Programme for 2019-20 has been designed using feedback and evaluation information from the programmes in the last 3 years.

Who for?

The programme will continue to be available for organisations receiving core funding via the CYPFEIF & ALEC Fund – we acknowledge that not all organisations will want to or need to participate in all aspects of the programme.

Activity: 1-2-1	Overview	Key Info
Organisational Development	Organisations can access support, advice and guidance through these relationships to help them continue to achieve their organisation’s aims and outcomes.	Each funded organisation has a lead contact within the Foundation and a key policy officer contact in either Scottish Government or Education Scotland. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please contact your lead contact in the CYPFEIF & ALEC Fund team at the Foundation in the first instance to discuss any 1-2-1 support your organisation needs. • For any policy matters, please contact your lead policy officer in Scottish Government or Education Scotland.
Activity: Networking and Learning Exchanges	These 2-2.5-hour sessions will encourage and increase networking and learning across themes relevant to funded organisations, including sharing best practice, exploring policy themes and building relationships with other organisations.
